

University library requirements for CD-ROM design

- The CD-ROM must be labeled, accompanied by a booklet, and submitted in a hard plastic case.
- Slim cases may be used.

The CD-ROM must be labeled with a suitable label or sticker bearing the name (last name, first name) and the title of the dissertation/habilitation, abbreviated with periods if necessary, the note "Witten/Herdecke University," the type of academic thesis (dissertation/habilitation), and the year.

- The front of the booklet must show the reduced title page of the dissertation/habilitation, and the back of the booklet must show the details of the mentor, faculty advisor, academy advisor, date of the defense, etc. In addition, the file format must be specified.
- The back of the CD-ROM case must contain the name (last name, first name) and the note "Uni Witten/Herdecke," the type of academic thesis (dissertation/habilitation) and the year.

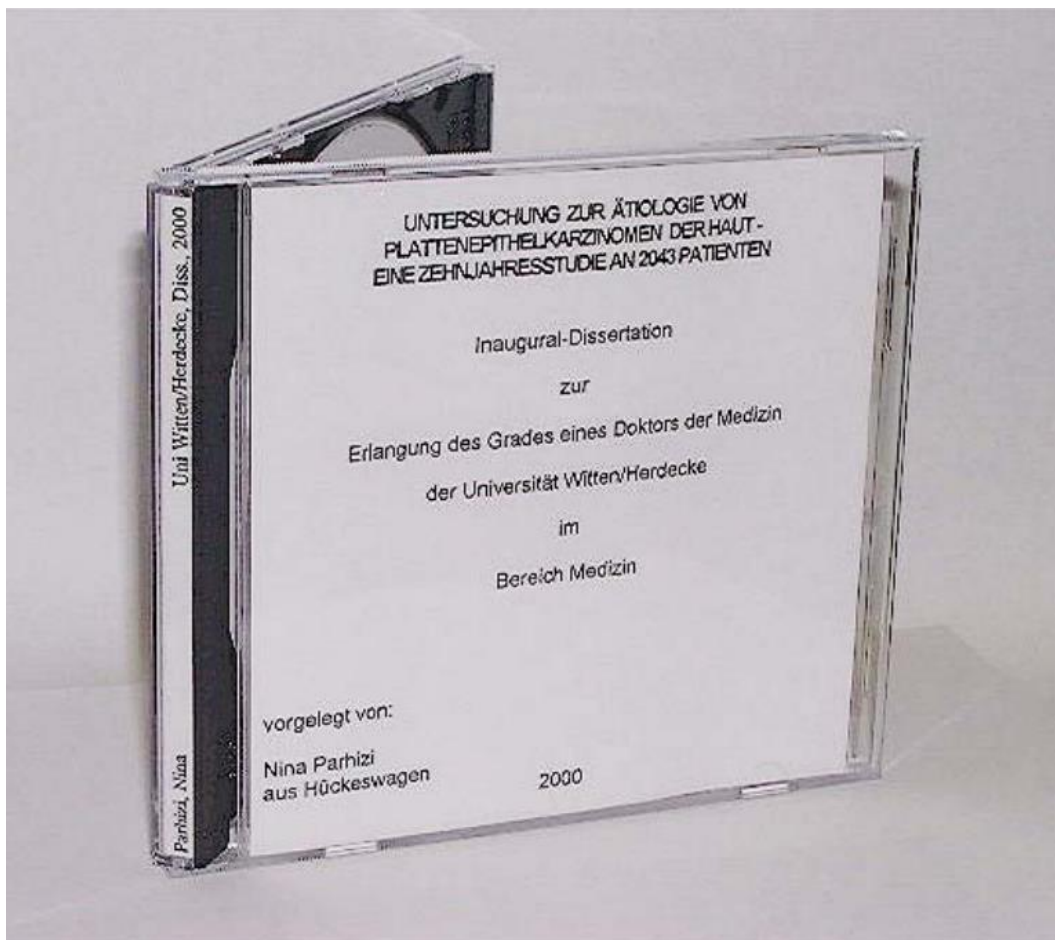

Figure 1: Back of the CD-ROM case and front of the booklet

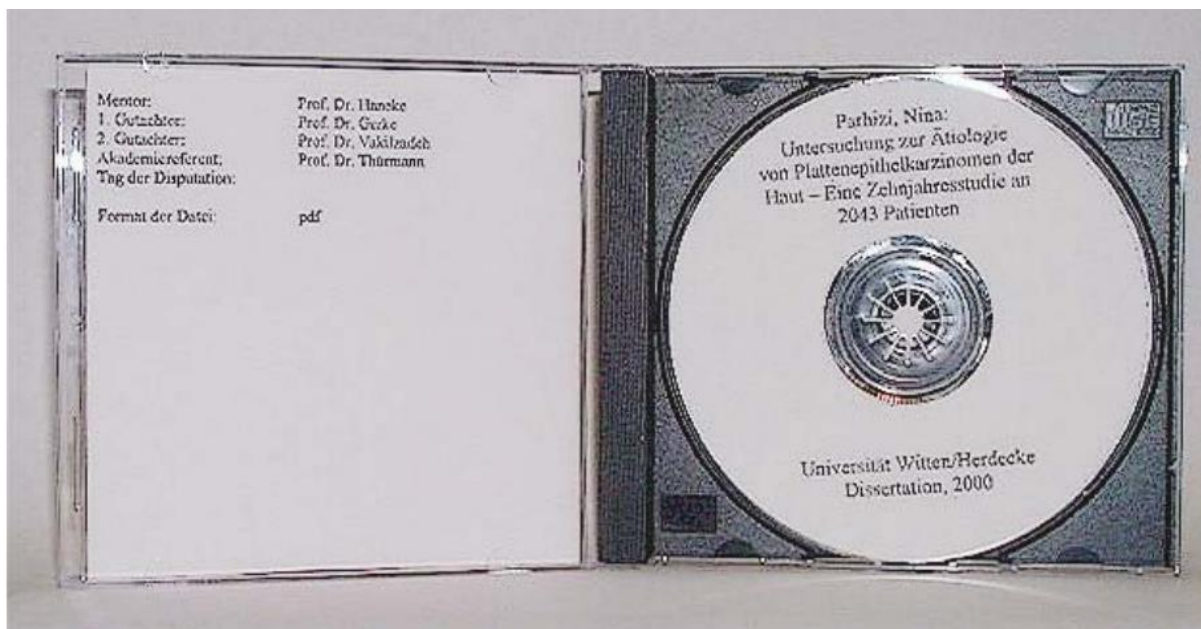

Figure 2: Back cover of the booklet and CD-ROM label