

Structure and modules

Philosophy, Politics and Economics (M. A.)

■ Advanced methods Basics for PPE:	Philosophy of Science	Qualitative Methods	Quantitative Methods (Focus applied on Econometrics)	15 ECTS
	Basics in Philosophy I and II: Ethics and Political Philosophy / Philosophy of Social Sciences	Basics in Politics I and II: Introductory Political Economy / Introductory International Relations	Basics in Economics I and II: Basics in Microeconomics and Institutional Econo- mics / Macroeconomics	30 ECTS
▼ Studium fundamentale				15 ECTS
● Elective modules (Optional: either individual profile or one major)	Individual Profile			40 ECTS
	International Economics: International Economics, Behavioural Economics, The International Financial System International Politics: Foreign Policy, Global Governance, Security Philosophy and Society: Game Theory and Social Structure, Advanced Philosophy of Economics, History of Economic Ideas in the Context of Social Philosophy Philosophy, Politics and Economics of Development: Development Economics and Politics, Institutional Economics, Democracy and Dictatorship, Global Justice and the Global South, Research Colloquium Development Studies Included in each major: Independent Study*, Independent Project			20 ECTS
Free electives, including:	Topics at the Interface of Philosophy, Politics and Economics	PPE in Practice		20 ECTS
■ Master module	Master thesis (Topic according to chosen major)			20 ECTS

*Independent Study for research-oriented topics

Independent Project for practice-oriented topics

■ Compulsory ▼ Compulsory elective ● Elective