INDIVIDUAL APPLICATION PROCEDURE

Your personality counts!

During our admission interviews we attach great importance to your experiences and values, distinguishing you from others. As we assume that your personality has not only been shaped by family and friends, but in particular also by initial work experience and stays abroad or by assuming social responsibility, these aspects will also play a major role in our individual admission interviews.

CONTENTS AND OBJECTIVES – BRIEF DESCRIPTION

The Psychology and Psychotherapy Bachelor programme is a basic scientific degree course leading to a first professional qualification. It imparts scientific fundamentals and subject knowledge of psychology, as well as methodological competence and occupational qualification, in particular in the field of clinical psychology. This degree course is a six-semester full-time programme.
