3. Directions

Düsseldorf Airport (International):

After arrival follow the signs to the SKY-Train. It is located on the upper level. The sky train will take you straight to the longdistance railway station. At the station you can buy a ticket (vending machine) to Witten HBF (“Witten Hauptbahnhof”).

Total travel time is about 1 hour.

Details you find here <https://www.bahn.com/en/view/index.shtml>

Frankfurt Airport (International):

<https://www.frankfurt-airport.com/de.html>

You can travel to Witten HBF with Deutsche Bahn's intercity trains to Köln (Cologne), Essen, or Bochum. There you have to change to local trains to Witten HBF (“Witten Hauptbahnhof”).

Total travel time is about 3 hours.

Dortmund Airport (International):

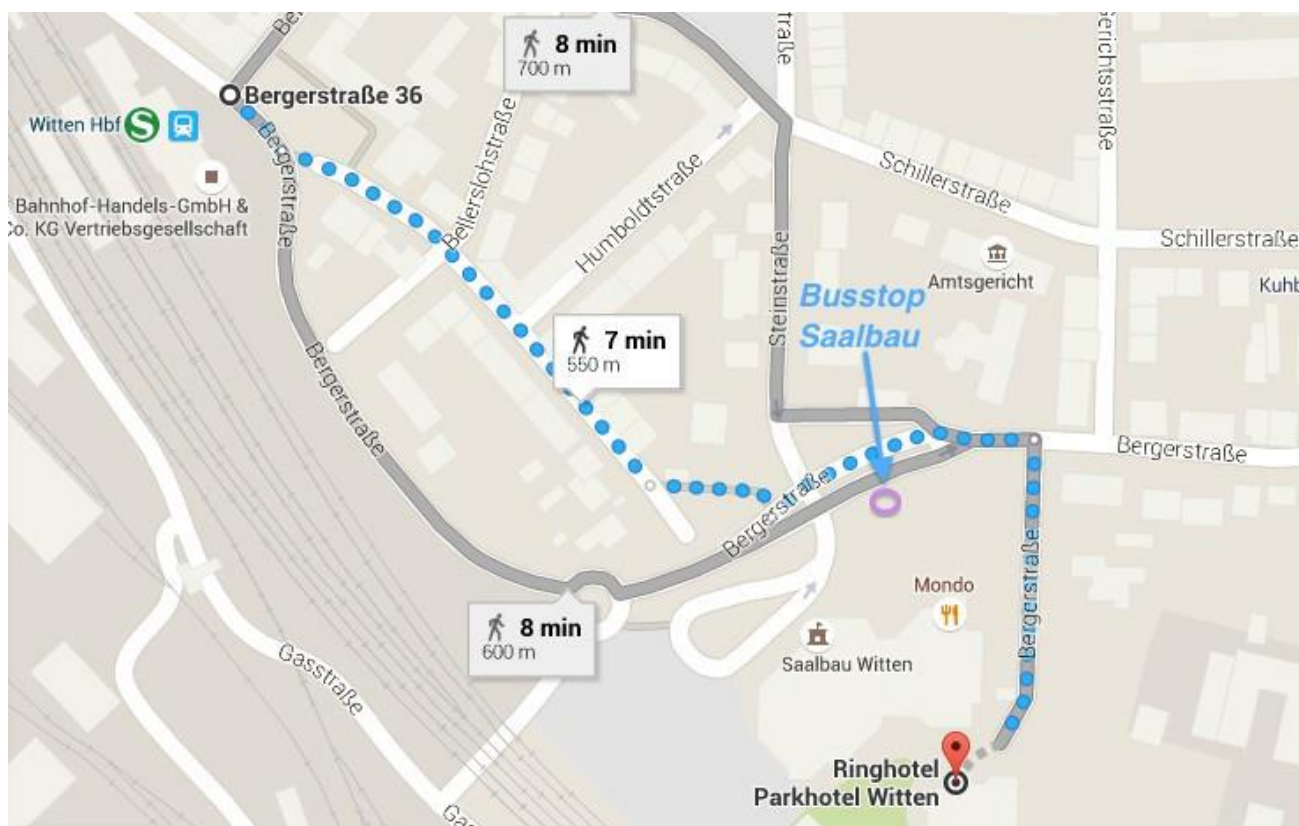

If you want to travel to and from the airport using public transport, you can take the AirportExpress which connects directly with Dortmund Central Station. If you choose to take the AirportShuttle, this takes you directly to Holzwickede station. At the station you can buy a ticket (vending machine) to Witten HBF. You can travel to both stations on the Deutsche Bahn's local and intercity trains.

If you are planning to purchase your ticket online, please refer to the Deutsche Bahn website www.bahn.com/en. This only pertains to public transport and excludes shuttle tickets which can be purchased on the bus.
